RE: Port Panama City U.S. Coast Guard Port Conditions

Port Panama City Florida Port Condition YANKEE MODIFIED

The U.S. Coast Guard has advanced our port condition to Yankee Modified. In preparation for Hurricane Helene, the Port will suspend container gate operations at 12:00 P.M. CDT on Wednesday, September 25, 2024, and general cargo operations at 4:00 P.M. CDT on Wednesday, September 25, 2024.

At this time, Port Panama City's main security gate will remain open until further notice. Based on the current weather forecast, Port Panama City will not conduct cargo operations on Thursday, September 26, 2024. The Port will reopen on Friday, September 27, 2024 once weather conditions allow for safe operations.
